ARTICLE 9

SENIORITY, LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 9.1: Seniority Defined

Seniority shall be based entirely upon an Employee's uninterrupted service with the Employer from the date of entry in a position covered by the Union and shall be broken if he or she leaves service for any period of time, for any reason, except authorized sick leave, military leave or authorized leave of absence. When more than one (1) appointment is made on the same date, the seniority list (Appendix "B") showing the Employee's position shall determine seniority within this agreement. Seniority shall be used solely for layoff and recall.

Section 9.2: Probationary Period (New Officers)

New officers (not Authority employees) shall have a probationary period of twelve (12) months during which time said employee may be suspended, dismissed, discharged or laid off at the sole discretion of the employer.

Section 9.3: Probationary Period (Promotion of Non-Unit Employees)

Newly promoted Authority Employees shall have a probationary period of twelve (12) months.

Section 9.4: Job Postings

Any vacancy within the bargaining unit, shall be posted for a period of five (5) work days in order to give an opportunity to any interested Employee to make application, in writing, for such job. Such application must include the Employee's qualifications for the position.

Promotions within the bargaining unit will be based upon an Employee's qualification, abilities and experience to perform the posted position. An Employee's disciplinary convictions may be considered as part of this evaluation process. The parties agree that as a part of this evaluation process, an "external assessment" program will be established. This external assessment will utilize law enforcement personnel from other police departments to review and rank candidates for promotion. Seniority will be considered in the evaluation process. The final decision for the promotion of an employee shall be vested in the Employer.

An Employee who is selected for promotion within the bargaining unit shall have a promotional probationary period of 120 days of actual work.

During the probationary period, the promoted employee may be removed by the Employer and returned to his/her former position. In addition, during the probationary period, the promoted Employee may voluntarily relinquish their rights to the promoted position and return to the position previously held. The promoted Employee may be removed also upon the exercise of any rights by Union Employees to return to that position pursuant to this agreement.

While on promotional probation, an Employee will be entitled to all benefits provided herein.

During this probationary period, there shall be no prejudice to their Union membership nor their right to return to their previous job classification in the bargaining unit, with full seniority rights as described in this Article. If, after the probationary period is completed, an Employee who was promoted outside the bargaining unit is removed from that position as a result of position elimination or layoff, then that Employee may bump back to the bargaining unit based on his/her seniority date when he/she first left the unit.

Section 9.6: Layoff/Demotion

In the event of a layoff, seniority shall determine the order in which such Employees are laid off (Appendix B), those Employees with the greater seniority being the last laid off. It is understood that seasonal Employees must be laid off first then regular part-time employees before any full-time Employees are laid off. In the case of ties, a union system shall be used to establish seniority ranking.

Employees selected for layoff may "bump" other less senior employees with an equal or lesser salary grade ranking. An Employee may only bump into a position, which he or she is qualified for in the judgment of the Employer.

When an Employee "bumps" to an equal salary grade, he or she shall retain his/her current salary grade and step.

If "bumping" to a lower grade, the Employee will assume the salary grade step for that grade which is nearest or equal to his/her present salary providing it is not higher than his/her current salary. The Employee will also receive all benefits provided herein.

Section 9.7: Recall

In the event that Employees will be recalled to work, such recall will be based upon seniority as defined in Section 9.1 of Article 9 as follows: The most senior Employee will be recalled, provided he/she has the ability to perform the duties required. To be eligible for recall an employee must maintain his/her police certification.

However, an Employee shall have the option of carrying over a maximum of sixteen (16) hours of personal leave time to be used within the first ninety (90) days of such fiscal year. Sick leave credits may be accumulated up to a total of 219 days (1,752 hours). Employees assigned to work ten (10) hour days will, in addition to the basic one-half day (4 hours) per pay period accrual, earn a bonus of one (1) sick leave hour for each pay period worked. In order to receive paid sick leave in excess of five (5) days in any fiscal year, an Employee must present medical documentation from a physician verifying the illness or injury.

Employees have the responsibility to notify the Employer as soon as possible when they are sick. This should be prior to their scheduled working hours. The Employee's time record sheet will reflect the period of time the Employee was on sick leave. These records will be verified and approved by the signature of the Employer.

For illness in excess of five (5) consecutive workdays, an Employee will be required to have a physician's release to return to work. The Employer, at its own expense and selection, may require an Employee to take a physical examination whenever deemed necessary.

Abuse or falsification of sick leave is a serious violation of Employer work rules, which may result in disciplinary action including dismissal.

A record of the Employee's approved sick leave shall be kept by the Employer and shall be related to the Employee upon request.

Reinstatement of Sick Leave: When an Employee is reinstated into the same position or re-employed to a position in the bargaining unit within one (1) year following reinstatement or layoff, sick leave credits accumulated at the time of reinstatement or layoff shall be restored.

Only one (1) grievance shall be submitted to or be heard by an individual arbitrator except by mutual written agreement of the parties. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto.
